Off the Cuff

When it comes to looking your best, you're all for a little fabrication.

Not lie-to-the-world-in-a-best-selling-memoir kind of deceit. But a modest pull-the-wool-over-your-eyes-never-hurt-anyone approach.

Remember that when you reach for Cuff Luv's flirty embellishments that quickly (and cheaply) transform an otherwise drab ensemble.

Slip the cuffs on under your James Perse tee or tweed blazer, and you're ready for a night out. Pair the Couture Cuffs – which have buttons, crochet trim, eyelet, tulle, or antique lace – with just about any top to give the most basic outfit a very unbasic flair (and flare). If layering is your thing (or if your lower torso starts to get lonely), try the lacy petticoat peeking out underneath a skirt.

We like to call it wardrobe rehab.

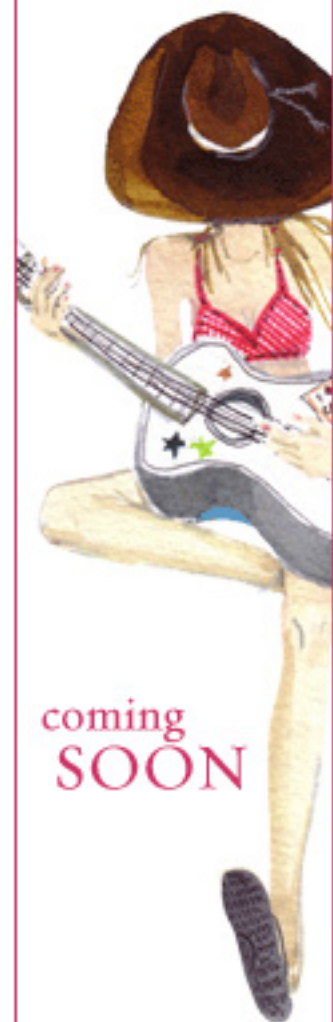

Just don't ask James Frey to be your sponsor.

Available at The Boutique at E Street Denim Co., 1876 First Street, Highland Park (847-433-7953); online at cuffluvstuff.com.
