Shirtless Bliss

Remember dickeys? Collars and turtlenecks worn while the rest of the shirt is a no-show. The phenomenon is a regrettable part of fashion history. Interestingly enough, Cuff Luv has applied the same concept to the wrist and yielded a collection of romantic cuffs in black, white or ivory. Trimmed in lace or crochet with a decorative button closure, the pressed cotton and lace creations give an Edwardian edge to a simple button-down. $39, frostingfashions.com
